WELCOME, NEW ILLINI!

It is a real pleasure to welcome you to the University of Illinois. The Dean of Women and her staff wish you a happy and satisfying year.

Learning and Labor, the motto of the University of Illinois, will be your guide as it has been for thousands of students who have preceded you. I hope that learning to find one's way into the meaning of life — an understanding of the essential values of living — as well as learning skills and techniques for a special vocation, will be your reasons for coming to the University. Then look about you when you arrive on campus! Opportunities for your development are everywhere, for the purpose of a University is "to render an intelligent being more intelligent." You will be challenged each day with the decision of putting first things first.

Extra-curricular activities have their place, but be cautious not to be side-tracked. Know your limitations. Your success depends on you — how you develop your abilities and talents — how you balance your time between studies and activities — and how soon you seek assistance when needed.

Your Freshman Adviser and your House Director will be on hand to greet you and to guide you. For those women students who have no affiliation with an organized house, meetings will be arranged for you during Freshman Week. You will hear from a Freshman Adviser for town girls as to time and place of these meetings. If for some reason you do not hear from an adviser, inquire at the Office of the Dean of Women Monday morning of Freshman Week for the schedule of these meetings.

The Dean of Women and her staff are always ready to assist you in any way they can. Whether you have a problem or not, do not hesitate to call at the office.

Sincerely yours,

A SPECIAL NOTE TO TRANSFERS!

Although this booklet has been written to welcome the entering freshman women students, the Dean of Women and her staff extend a hearty welcome to you transfer students to the University of Illinois. We hope you will find the information contained in this booklet on W.G.S., Panhellenic, grade points, activities, traditions, and songs helpful to you in becoming acquainted with your new environment. The students attending the University of Illinois are known as "Illini," meaning brave men; the name is derived from the Illinois Indian tribe who once inhabited the state.

When you arrive on campus, you will receive a brochure describing the Freshman Week activities, some of which will be of interest to you. If you live in an organized house, a student in your house will provide you with this information. If not, you may receive one from the Office of the Dean of Women upon request.

One suggestion to you. Since you know the general procedures based on your previous college experience, learn as soon as possible what requirements, regulations, and customs are different at the University of Illinois. Feel free to come to the Dean of Women's Office when questions arise.

A VISIT TO THE CAMPUS

If you plan to visit the campus during the summer to complete arrangements for housing through the Housing Division, to discuss curriculum plans with your college office or department, to take your Freshman Guidance Examinations, or to arrange an appointment for your physical examination, include a visit at the Office of the Dean of Women where you will receive further assistance.

FRESHMAN WEEK

When you arrive on campus either Sunday or Monday morning, you will begin a busy week at the University of Illinois. Moving into new living units, meeting new people, unpacking your possessions, getting settled and attending all the sessions planned by the Freshman Week Committee and your Freshman Advisers will be somewhat exhausting.

Monday begins the week of scheduled events. Read and re-read your official program of Freshman Week sent to you from the Office of Admissions and Records. Your first scheduled meeting will be with the official of your selected college on Monday afternoon. A faculty adviser will be available to help map out your course of study for the first semester. The curriculum requirements will be carefully explained, allowing you to do some constructive planning for yourself. If for some reason you were unable to complete your physical examination before your arrival on campus, you may arrange for an examination at the Health Center during Freshman Week. All students are required to have a physical examination and chest x-ray before registration, so be sure to check your program for information concerning them. The swimming and posture tests required by the University will also be given during the times designated in your Freshman Week program.

After dinner Monday night, you will attend the All-Freshman Welcome, where you will be introduced to the President of the University, the deans, the student leaders, and others on campus whom you will want to know. A reception following the Welcome will offer you the opportunity of meeting and talking with these people informally, as well as the chance of meeting and chatting with other members of your class.

Tuesday will be given over to testing. Don't worry about these tests, but do your best. The Rhetoric Placement Test, which will be given in the morning, is a test of your ability in grammar, spelling, and written expression. Your faculty adviser should know the results of the test by Friday or Saturday before you register. The Freshman Guidance Examinations will be given in two installments in sequence on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon or Wednesday and Thursday morning. Check your coupon for the place and time of each installment. The results of these examinations, which you may receive later, will give you some idea of your aptitudes and interests and help you in selecting your courses and a vocation. If you have taken the Freshman Guidance Examinations on the Urbana campus during the summer, you are excused from them during Freshman Week. Tuesday night you are invited to attend the Fun Night program sponsored by the Women's Sports Association.

Wednesday morning will begin the first sequence of Freshman Guidance Examinations. This program will be repeated when the second sequence begins in the afternoon. Be sure to check your coupon for your assignment. For the evening's entertainment, the Illini Union has planned an Open House. With your group arrange to meet others there for dancing, bridge, bowling, or just chatting over a coke or a cup of coffee.

Thursday morning will again be given to Freshman Guidance Examinations. Once more check your coupon for your assignment. In early afternoon a special meeting will be held for all new freshman women, to meet the Dean of Women, her staff, and the outstanding women student leaders on campus. Following this session, you are invited to a Coffee Hour sponsored by the Office of the Dean of Women at the Illini Union. This will give you an opportunity of meeting informally the Dean of Women, her staff, student leaders and other freshman women attending the University. In the evening you will want to attend the annual Open Houses of the Religious Foundations that are located near the campus.

Friday morning will begin the period of registration. In order to complete your registration on Friday or Saturday, you must present a receipt indicating that you have completed your physical examination. Procedure for registration is much the same whether you register on Friday or Saturday. First, you will meet with your college adviser for his final approval of your academic schedule. He will then give you several papers and cards, which will be explained. You will be directed to the Armory where you will officially register. Don't be too alarmed when you find yourself inside the building; although it may seem confusing at first glance, registration really is a logical and simple system. You will see many tables, and signs identifying the courses to mark your way. During the process of registration, you will go to the table offering each course on your schedule, register with the instructor who sits behind the table, and proceed until you have completed your schedule. Upon completion, you will be directed through a series of "stations" numbered from one to eight. (These stations are tables where your cards will be checked, your fees collected, your identification picture taken, and details dispensed.) There will be an Information Table staffed by Freshman Advisers who will be ready to assist you if you have any questions during the process.

The big social event Friday evening will be the Registration Dance in Huff Gymnasium.

Saturday evening the Illini Union will sponsor Activity Night in Huff Gymnasium. This is staged to give you a preview of the many activities on campus. There will be guides at each activity booth who will answer your questions and help you learn about the activities and help you select one suited to your talents and interest.

Sunday morning the churches of the community invite you to their worship services. In the afternoon a social hour jointly sponsored by the YMCA and YWCA will be held at the YMCA. The Religious Foundations invite you to attend their functions Sunday evening, too.

At all times, follow the directions in your Official

Freshman Week Program for each event. Your Freshman Adviser will arrange special meetings throughout the week and during the following weeks to assist you.

There will be some free time to enjoy the recreational facilities — tennis courts, golf courses, bowling alleys at the Union — especially if you have previously taken your Freshman Guidance Examinations and your physical examination — and to write that all-important letter home.

September 16 — Instruction begins!

YOUR DEANS OF WOMEN

The Dean of Women and her staff are concerned with the welfare of women students in all phases of campus and academic life. Guidance is given through group advising, leadership training programs and by individual counseling.

Do not hesitate to visit the office with any question you may have.

Miss Miriam A. Sheldon — Dean of Women

Miss Agnes G. Tandberg — Associate Dean of Women for Freshman Women

Miss Eunice Dowse — Assistant Dean of Women for Residence Hall Counseling

Miss Patricia Cross — Assistant Dean of Women for Sorority Women

Miss Mary Harrison — Assistant Dean of Women for Independent Women

MEET YOUR FRESHMAN ADVISER

One of your first friends on the campus will be your Freshman Adviser. She is an upperclass student selected by her housing unit — independent, sorority, or residence hall — to be your friend and counselor for the year. She serves in cooperation with other officers in your house and with the Freshman Advisers from every living unit on campus. You will hear from your Freshman Adviser sometime during the summer when you have completed housing arrangements. She will arrive on campus before you and be on hand during Freshman Week to help you become acquainted with our University. Besides arranging special informative get-togethers in your living unit, she will plan a campus tour, assist with academic schedules and registration procedures, and be available to answer your questions. If she cannot assist you, she will refer you to others who can.

YOUR HOUSING

Make your housing plans early. As soon as you have your permit to enter, write to the Housing Division, 108 Illini Hall, and you will receive helpful information. In general there are three types of housing: (1) University-owned and operated resident halls and cooperatives; (2) University-approved but privately-operated residence halls, cooperatives, and other organized housing units; (3) sorority houses, open to membership through the rushing program.

YOUR GROUP

Depending on where you choose to live, you will become a member of either the Women's Group System or Panhellenic — two organizations in which the women on our campus take great pride.

WOMEN'S GROUP SYSTEM

If you live in an independent house, you will be a member of Women's Group System. Undoubtedly, you will be interested in knowing what your organization is, what it does, and how you can take an active part in its program.

W.G.S. promotes high scholarship, develops leadership, encourages fellowship, and promotes group interest in participation in campus affairs. W.G.S. sponsors Alpha Chron, sophomore activity honorary, which plans Watcheka Sing for Mother's Day week end. W.G.S. joins the Men's Independent Association in presenting the annual Sno-Ball Dance, in publishing their own paper, the INDEE, and in sponsoring the Dad's Day Revue. Positions in these activities and on all major standing committees are open to all independent undergraduate women.

W.G.S. is the "voice" of the independent women on campus. Its elected officers represent you and the organization on the major campus policy making groups. The governing and policy making body of W.G.S. is Second Council, which is composed of the presidents and representatives of all W.G.S. houses. Through Second Council the opinions and needs of all independent women are expressed, and the independent women are kept informed on important campus events.

Especially for freshmen is W.G.S. Freshman Board, which is composed of freshman representatives from all the W.G.S. houses. Its goals are to voice the needs of freshman women, to develop fellowship and leadership, and to encourage freshmen to become active in campus activities. This group is represented on Executive Council and is advised by the Assistant Freshman Adviser.

When you think of your campus activities, remember your W.G.S. office in 332 Illini Union. Come in and find out more about your organization — W.G.S.

PANHELLENIC

The name Panhellenic is derived from the Greek words "pan," meaning "together," and "hellos," meaning "Greeks." Illinois Panhellenic is an organization of approximately 1400 women who have accepted membership in 28 social sororities. These women have chosen to live together to stimulate and encourage one another in higher scholarship, deeper friendships, and personal growth and development.

Each sorority on the University of Illinois campus has representation on the President's Council, which consists of the house presidents of all the sororities. The council works in cooperation with the Executive Committee to plan a varied program for all Panhellenic members. The junior departmental chairmen work with Junior Panhellenic, a group composed of all sorority pledges, and patterned after Panhellenic.

Panhellenic sponsors the sophomore honorary, Shi-Ai, which honors freshmen women who have shown qualities of service and leadership through activities. In Panhellenic there is an opportunity for all members to contribute to the welfare of their group, since philanthropic, scholastic, and social events require for their success a diversity of abilities and leadership.

Believing in high scholarship, Panhellenic requires an academic average of 3.3 (C+) for one semester, to qualify for initiation into a sorority.

For those women who are unable to visit the Illinois campus in the spring for Rush Week, there is Informal Rushing within the first four weeks of the fall semester. Girls interested in informal rushing must register, after enrollment in the University, with the Panhellenic Adviser in the office of the Dean of Women. She will be glad to talk with you and assist in any way possible.

Panhellenic, along with other University groups, cooperates with the University in maintaining its ideals and policies, social standards, and scholarship. The organization sponsors such activities as the pledge banquet in the fall; a fall scholarship dessert; Greek Week; the annual Panhellenic Ball; the spring scholarship banquet; and Shi-Ai Sing, presented during the Mother's Day week end. Panhellenic seeks to prepare its members for constructive citizenship in the college and world community.

AN EDUCATION FOR YOU!

Attending the University provides an opportunity for you to continue self-development with guidance. These years will challenge you to think, to create, to acquire knowledge for a professional degree, to help you gain a broader perspective for adult citizenship, and to develop a philosophy of life.

ALL ABOUT CLASSES

In case you have been wondering about classes at the University, here are a few facts. Many courses do involve attending large lectures, but there are also small discussion groups provided in which the students may raise individual questions. The average class is composed of twenty-five students.

The first class begins at eight in the morning and the last one at four in the afternoon. However, your first class may begin at any hour during the day. This of course depends on your schedule of classes. There are a few courses that hold classes in the evening, but these are exceptions. However, you may have a Saturday class. Classes begin on the hour and are dismissed after fifty minutes, providing a ten minute break between classes.

This is an example of what a typical weekly class schedule might be.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO STUDY?

Many freshmen, coming to a large University, must learn to study all over again. Good planning and common sense will help you. Here are a few suggestions:

1. Plan your time. This is the most important suggestion. You should include time for study, recreation, and sleep. You will have time to accomplish more if you make out a daily schedule.

2. You will study much more effectively in an upright position at a desk clear of pictures or anything distracting. Don't loll on the bed or in the easy chair.

3. Try studying at the Library, and learn how it can help you. A change of scenery helps in studying.

4. When you start to day-dream, as we all do, it is better to leave your books for a while and then return. It is best to study in short stretches of one or two hours at a time, with ten or fifteen minute breaks in between.

5. While you are studying, if you think of some little tasks that you should take care of, make a list of them to get them off your mind. You'll find that you can concentrate much better.

6. Concentrate in class. First listen, and then take notes. A good method is to take them in outline form. If you listen and remember, reviewing for exams will be much easier. It is a good plan to read over your notes as soon as possible after class.

7. Keep your work up-to-date. Outlining or underlining chapters as you read helps to relate main points. Don't let it pile up until just before your exams, because last minute review is nearly impossible — physically and mentally.

8. It is a good policy to study far enough in advance in order that you may get a good night's sleep before an exam. It's best to study harder on subjects more difficult to you.

9. Attend classes regularly and give the instructor your complete attention to get the most from the class discussion. Be prepared to contribute, too.

10. If you wanted to, you could study all the time, but you will discover better results if you take time out for relaxation and fun.

11. If you are having trouble with one of your courses, by all means plan a conference with your instructor as soon as possible. He is here to help you and will be pleased that you are showing interest.

12. Alpha Lambda Delta members will be ready to assist you if you have any difficulty with a subject.

Remember, the first semester is the best time to start forming good study habits.

GOOD STUDY HABITS EQUAL GOOD GRADES

The five grade points used in the University are A-5, B-4, C-3, D-2, and E-1. Each course in the curriculum has an assigned number of credit hours. To determine your grade point average, multiply the point value of the grade you receive in each course by the number of credit hours in that course. Add the answers you get from your multiplications and divide the sum by the total number of hours for which you were registered in the particular semester.

For example:

Rhetoric 101	3 hours	B	3x4	12
Math 117	5 hours	A	5x5	25
Spanish 101	4 hours	C	4x3	12
Botany	4 hours	B	4x4	16
TOTAL	16 hours		Grade Point Total	65

The total of 65 divided by 16 will equal a grade point average of 4.06 — “B” average.

There is a grade average which must be maintained in any curriculum, depending on the college in which you are enrolled. If you fail to obtain the specified average, you are placed on probation for the next semester. If you again fail to raise your average that next semester, you are dropped from school. To regain admittance, you must submit a petition to the dean of your college. This does not necessarily mean that you will be readmitted. Your Freshman Adviser can give you details on probation.

Cheating on examinations is a cause for dismissal from the University. Plagiarism (using someone else's written work as your own) is a serious offense, and may be the cause for being dropped from the course.

ALPHA LAMBDA DELTA

For excellence in scholastic achievement your first semester or during your first year you may earn membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, a national scholastic honor society. All freshman women who make an average of 4.5 in 15 hours of academic work their first semester, or in 30 hours of academic work their first year are initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta.

Freshman women who earn a 4.0 point or better average at the end of the first eight weeks of the fall semester are honored at an Alpha Lambda Delta Scholarship Tea. This is a step toward full membership in Alpha Lambda Delta. Set your goals high.

To assist freshman women who have difficulty in some of their courses, the members of Alpha Lambda Delta have set up a special assistance program which is free of charge. To receive this aid, list your name with the Alpha Lambda Delta adviser, Office of the Dean of Women.

Alpha Lambda Delta members usher at the Dean of Women's meeting in the fall, Honors Day in the spring, and participate in the procession at the Coronation of the Mother's Day Queen ceremony in May.

Alpha Lambda Delta members who maintain the Alpha Lambda Delta grade point average or better each semester are honored during the last semester of their senior year. To the top ranking senior, the National Council of Alpha Lambda Delta presents a book award—Treasury of Poetry. Certificates are presented to the other honored seniors.

HERE'S WHAT TO DO

If you have any trouble with reading or studying, contact your Freshman Adviser about special classes conducted by the Student Counseling Bureau. Go to 311 Administration Building (East), and make an appointment. One of the trained personnel will help you with your study difficulties or any other questions you may have.

If it is necessary to change your course, drop or add a subject, you must do it officially through the Dean of your college. If things aren't going right, you may like to talk over your problems with your professor, your House Director, your Freshman Adviser, your faculty adviser, or with the Associate Dean of Freshman Women.

If you are ill, have someone in your house notify the House Director at once. If you are able, report to the Health Center. When you are absent, you must bring to the Office of the Dean of Women a statement signed by your House Director regarding your absence from classes. Then you will be given a special form which should be shown to the instructor of the class missed. This is not an excuse but a statement of the reason for your absence from class.

Attend your classes regularly. There is no rule that allows you a certain number of "cuts" at this University.

ACTIVITY MINDED!

Miss Illini Wise, there is a place for you in activities at the University of Illinois! If you are the type of person who likes to meet and make new friends, activities will offer you a very good opportunity to do so. Many activities not only cultivate new and old interests, but they also offer excellent training for your future vocation. Activities give training in leadership, and the experiences help to develop the best "you."

How will you go about entering activities? The first step will be to choose something in which you are sincerely interested. Perhaps something you liked to do in high school will be a starting point. Or, if you wish to try a new interest, look over the activities and choose something which appeals to you. Many activities have committee reports giving helpful information to persons interested. These reports can be found in the offices of the various activities.

PETITION AND INTERVIEW

Some activities request you to fill out a petition to indicate your interest. This application blank is similar to one you would fill out in applying for a job. It asks for basic information concerning past experience (including high school activities), other activities, and grade average. After filling out the petition, you will probably be asked for an interview with persons already working in the activity. This is a friendly, informal meeting. During the interview you may be asked questions similar to these:

(1) What previous experience have you had in this field?

(2) What made you decide to petition for this activity?

(3) Do you have any questions concerning the workings of this activity?

(You should read a report about the activity before going to the interview so you understand the nature of the activity.)

(4) Do you have any other jobs or outside interests which would interfere with your cooperation in this job?

(5) Do you think you will be able to maintain a high grade average while participating in this activity?

(6) Do you have any suggestions for the improvement of this activity?

Answer the questions sincerely and frankly, for the keynote to success is a genuine interest and enthusiasm for the organization. If you meet the requirements, you will be notified that you have been placed in your own interest group. If you are not chosen for the particular activity you are primarily interested in, try another activity. Of the large number of activities on campus, there are several that will be interested in you and want your help and enthusiasm.

Students who demonstrate scholarship, leadership, and service while participating in activities are usually honored by being invited to membership in the all-women activity honor groups. If you are truly Illini Wise, then you will begin your work in your freshman year by taking advantage of all of the opportunities that are open to you.

How then, can you start your career in activities? Study the following descriptions of the various activities and find those that interest you.

The Freshman Council is the representative body of the freshman class. This council is designed to further the interests and to study the problems of the Freshman Class. Freshmen who petition are interviewed and chosen early in the fall or at mid-semester. The Freshman Council participates in Freshman Orientation Week as well as representing the Freshman Class at University functions.

The Illini Union is the hub of many campus activities. Most of the petitioning for these activities takes place in Room 322, Illini Union. There are about forty committees which plan and execute the activities of the Illini Union.

Department One executes the International Fair and a spring function, annual events on campus. It is in charge of pep rallies held during the fall semester and Jazz-U-Like It.

Department Two plans Dad's Day, organizes Block I and directs a Foreign Student Group. This department also plans Illini Union Movies, Club Sophisticate (your campus night club), and High School Circus, which is held during the State High School Basketball Tournament.

Department Three, in cooperation with the Alumni Association and the Athletic Association, plans events for Homecoming week end. Spring Musical, featuring student talent, weekly social dances, and coffee hours are also included in Department Three.

Department Four sponsors the annual Homecoming Stunt Show and Mother's Day events. Social forums and exhibits of fine arts are also handled by this department.

The Department of Public Relations handles advertising and all general publicity for the Illini Union Student Activities.

Department of Personnel handles personnel development and management.

Musical Organizations open to undergraduate women are many and varied. The Concert Band, the First Regimental Band, and the University Symphony Orchestra attract women who enjoy instrumental music. The Football Marching Band seen at all home games is open only to men, while the Second Regimental Band is open to women interested in band. The Oratorio Society of 200 voices, the University Chorus of 125 voices, the University Choir of 50 voices, and the Women's Glee Club are open to women who enjoy group singing. These groups are devoted to the study of both secular and sacred music.

The Opera Workshop, composed primarily of voice majors in music school, produces both grand and light operas. Occasionally the Opera Workshop joins with the University Theatre to present a production.

The University Theatre, with its headquarters in Lincoln Hall, is a creative activity which offers an opportunity to participate in all fields of the theatre. Not only acting experience is offered, but also experience in scenery construction, costuming, designing, and makeup. The business staff takes care of publicity, the box office, house management, and the play bill. Students work under a large faculty staff of directors and technicians. A minimum of five plays is given by the University Theatre during a yearly subscription season. The University Theatre Workshop offers basic training for the regular University Theatre productions. This workshop is open to all students, with special encouragement to freshmen and sophomores. The Workshop productions are directed by undergraduate and graduate students interested in directing under faculty guidance. In order to try out for a specific major production you must take part in general tryouts offered at the beginning of each semester.

Star Course presents programs of music performed by outstanding artists and musical organizations. Freshmen and sophomore staff members usher at the programs, and the sophomores also do office work during the week. The junior managers direct the advertising, concert arrangements, public relations, office management, physical plant arrangements, ticket sales, publicity, and office personnel. Often the staff members have an opportunity to entertain the visiting artists. The Star Course office is on the third floor of the Illini Union.

The *Daily Illini, a newspaper published by University students, is issued five days a week reporting information about current affairs and University news. Experience is offered in all fields of journalism such as reporting, advertising, copyreading, and circulation. Interested freshmen are invited to attend a meeting at the beginning of the semester designed to acquaint new students with the organization of the paper and the duties and functions of the various staffs and positions. The Daily Illini office is in the basement of Illini Hall.

The *Illio, the University yearbook, gives a pictorial record of the year's happenings. The business staff offers experience in the management of the finances, sales, and advertising of the book. The editorial staff plans the layout of the pages, handles pictures, and writes the copy for the book.

Campus Chest is an organization which was formed to combine numerous drives for charities into an annual campus drive. The proceeds from contributions given in the drive and from a spring function sponsored by the Illini Union are allocated to worthwhile charities. Book and clothing drives are also sponsored.

Women's Sports and Dance Council, which is composed of the Women's Sports Association, Terrapin, and Orchesis, is equivalent to the G.A.A. program in high school. The Council provides an all-round sports and dance program for women on campus, either as an individual or as a member of an organized house. There is a place for the unskilled as well as the skilled in every activity offered, and you will have the opportunity to develop skills through instruction given by the physical education staff. W.S.A., Women's Sports Association, offers activities such as hockey, volleyball, bowling, swimming, apparatus, basketball, fencing, table tennis, badminton, archery, tennis, golf, softball, and ice skating. Those interested in more specialized groups may try out for Orchesis or Terrapin. Orchesis is a modern dance club that offers men and women the opportunity for creative dance study, composition, and performance. Orchesis presents an annual spring concert. Terrapin, the honorary swimming club, offers for those interested and skilled in swimming the opportunity to become more proficient in synchronized swimming. Terrapin gives its annual show in conjunction with the activities on Mother's Day week end. Guppies, sponsored by Terrapin, is open to anyone interested in improving her swimming skill, especially stunts and synchronized swimming.

The Y.W.C.A. sponsors a program which promotes the social, religious, and intellectual needs of the students. Besides functions relating to the students such as Freshman Camp, International Friendship, and the Doll Show, there are many other worthwhile programs carried on, ranging from community service projects to national and international affairs.

The Student Senate is the student's self-governing body at the University. The Senate promotes the general welfare of the student and exercises general policy-making authority over student activities through legislation. Fifteen members are ex-officio as heads of campus activities and twenty-eight members are elected from the student body. Freshmen are eligible for election.

The Committee on Student Affairs is a group which advises the Dean of Students on policies concerning student organizations and activities, social functions, the calendar of activity events, and recognition of honor and professional organizations. A chairman chosen from the faculty, eight faculty members, and eight students, elected from the Student Senate make up the personnel of this group.

Various College Councils offer an opportunity for an activity. The college councils sponsor activities and aid in establishing policies for students in their respective colleges. The college councils in which women may participate are Commerce, Engineering, Fine and Applied Arts, Home Economics, Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Physical Education.

HONORS AND YOU . . .

To reward students for their scholarship and leadership in their respective fields, there are many professional and honor organizations on the campus. These and similar organizations present programs of interest to the students and faculty. Ask your Freshman Adviser about them and be sure to find out how to become eligible for those in your field.

The honor societies for women choose members each year for their outstanding contributions to the University community in leadership, scholarship, and service.

Alpha Chron, women's activity honorary, rewards independent sophomore women for leadership and service in campus and house activities during their freshman year.

Shi-Ai is a sophomore activity honorary for Panhellenic women. Shi-Ais are selected at the end of their freshman year for outstanding leadership and service.

Torch, the junior women's activity honor organization, is composed of representatives from the campus activities, selected at the end of their sophomore year. The orange scarf identifies those selected to membership.

Shorter Board honors senior women outstanding in campus leadership and service. Its symbol is the white cap and gown.

Mortar Board, the senior women's activity honor society honors junior women recommended from campus activities as having shown outstanding scholarship, service and leadership. Each spring the honored wear the traditional black cap and gown the day following tapping.

THE WISE MISS ILLINI MINDS HER MANNERS

Everyone, even the most poised coed, faces new situations. Here are a few tips on manners that each Miss Illini Wise should follow. Remembering these few rules will help you to be at ease in your new college surroundings.

Your residence here on campus is your "college home" and the girls that you live with are your "college family." It's up to you to make a sincere effort to help establish the same spirit of cooperation, sharing, and common courtesy here that exists in your family at home. Your actions at all time reflect on the girls you live with just as they would reflect on your family. For this reason, to become Illini Wise you should observe certain formalities.

Smoking in University buildings is restricted to certain specifically designated areas. Smoking on streets or on campus walks is considered in poor taste.

At mealtime, the hostess at each table begins eating first. Wait for her to make the first move before you start. If you are unexpectedly late for dinner (and that should rarely happen) be certain to excuse yourself to the head hostess (usually the House Director) before you sit down.

Be certain that whenever your House Director or guests enter the room you stand to greet them. It is a good idea to introduce all of your guests to the House Director; she enjoys knowing your friends.

Introductions which often bother college coeds are really nothing to worry about for they are simple once you learn the formula. Remember to present young people to elders, men to women. "Miss House Director, may I present Jane Smith," or "Miss House Director, this is Jane Smith." Pronounce all names clearly so that everyone understands.

As students lead a friendly informal life on this campus, formal introductions are not necessary before speaking to someone on campus. Don't be shy about making introductions, or self-conscious about asking people their names again if you forget them. Everyone forgets a name now and then among all the new people one meets.

Finally, a few tips on dating. The Illinois campus has a casual atmosphere. Therefore, accepting dates with men in your classes or men whom you meet in different activities and large University functions is perfectly acceptable. Also, though week-end dates are usually made a few days in advance, impromptu coke dates and blind dates can be lots of fun.

Remember, a real Miss Illini Wise minds her manners at all times whether she is in her residence, on campus, or on a date.

to send to their parents for signature. These are to be returned to the University and filed as indicated on the card.

ABOUT A PERMIT TO DRIVE MOTOR VEHICLES

Students may operate a motor vehicle if they secure a University permit. You can get detailed information on these regulations from the Automobile Permit Department, 103 Service Building Annex.

However, freshman students under twenty-one years of age (or students on academic probation) may not have a permit for a motor vehicle except in cases of demonstrated needs.

If you are having a guest from out-of-town, first obtain your House Director's permission. Your guests are to observe the same house and University regulations.

ABOUT "UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS"

A booklet covering this subject will be distributed during Freshman Week. Be sure to read it thoroughly.

NEVER A DULL MOMENT

Week ends at Illinois are anything but dull! To supplement the commercial movie houses, the Illini Union sponsors movies to be seen for a nominal charge. For those who like to dance, each week a dance is held in the Union Ballroom. Besides these dances, Club Sophisticate is presented often in the Commons room of the Union. This is a "student nightclub" featuring dancing and student floor shows. Then, of course, there are those special University dances which are held in Huff Gymnasium.

For your spare moments during the whole week try some of these ideas. Lectures are given on almost any topic; there are concerts and plays produced by organizations like the University Theatre. In the spring, twilight band concerts are given on the steps of the Auditorium. The museums on the third and fourth floors of the Natural History Building and on the fourth floor of Lincoln Hall are open at designated hours. The sports-minded individual can bowl in the Union basement, play tennis on the courts next to the Library and behind the Women's Gymnasium, play golf on the University golf course, skate at the University Ice Rink, swim in the Huff and English Building pools, or attend track and gymnastic meets.

For a quick cup of coffee between classes, students frequent the Illini Union and the Kaeser Room of the Y.M.C.A. Illini Union free coffee hours in the afternoon provide relaxation and entertainment after classes.

When the family comes to visit, you might enjoy a trip to Allerton Park, which is located five miles southwest of Monticello. This beautiful estate was given to the University in 1946.

AND THEN THERE ARE THOSE SPECIAL WEEK ENDS. . . .

Homecoming week end brings alumni back to the campus to be entertained by the student stunt show, dances and the Homecoming football game. The house decorations all over the campus add color to the festivities.

Dad's Day and Mother's Day week ends provide enjoyment for both students and their parents. The Dads are not only honored at the football game but there are special events, such as a variety show, just for them. Mother's Day week end comes in May; one of the highlights of the festivities is the Processional and crowning of the May Queen.

THE RIGHT CLOTHES AT THE RIGHT TIME

Clothes may not make the woman, but to Miss Illini Wise they're pretty important. And why not? You can have a lot more fun and self-confidence when you know you're dressed appropriately. Maybe we can give you an idea of what to wear and when. Our campus is a very informal one. Casualness is the keynote to campus styles. But remember casualness does not indicate lack of neatness!

On pages 40 and 41 is a handy chart to help you solve the clothes problem. So now, when you start to dress for an occasion, all you have to do is to find out where you're going, and then check this chart.

MONEY MATTERS

By now you have probably gone over your college budget again and again. Besides considering general expenses, you should budget for extras. Keep in mind, too, that meals are extra during registration week as meals are generally not served during that time where you live. There are some other optional expenses during the first weeks which you may want to make provisions for, such as: A. A. book, Illio, and Daily Illini, house dues, and books.

Tuition and fees are paid at the end of the registration process. If you pay by check, make it payable to the University of Illinois and make it out for the exact amount.

Miscellaneous (Stationery; stamps; bus fare; soap; cigarettes, if you smoke; laundry; and cleaning.)

There is no University student bank on campus. However, you may want to arrange for a checking account in one of the community banks in Champaign or Urbana, or you may arrange an account in your home bank. You should never carry large sums of money or cash large checks. Traveler's checks are convenient and safe. Always remember to carry some form of identification. The best form of identification is your I. D. (University Identification) Card, which you will receive at the time of registration.

The Student Employment Office in Illini Hall assists students in finding part-time jobs in the University and in the community. Women students interested in securing room and board opportunities in private homes may make arrangements through the Office of the Dean of Women.

CAMPUS TRADITIONS

To help you get that Illini feeling, here are some of the traditions which Illinois has developed over the years.

First, during the fall season . . .

PEP RALLIES

Every Friday night before a home football game, hundreds of students gather to cheer the "Fighting Illini" on to a victory.

MEMORIAL STADIUM

The impressive Memorial Stadium was built to honor Illini who served in World War I. Each one of the 190 columns is dedicated to an alumnus who died while on active duty. Taps are sounded before some of the games in honor of the deceased Illini.

BLOCK "I"

This group of cheering students performs during half-time at the football games. By flashing different colored cards, they form many intricate pictures and scenes of interest to the crowds at the stadium.

CHIEF ILLINIWEK

This famous Illini representative, chosen from the student body, parades with the football band at the games, extends greetings, and sometimes offers a peace pipe to the visiting "tribes," and performs a ritualistic dance at half-time.

ILLIBUCK

The Illibuck is a wooden replica of a giant turtle which is given to the team winning the Ohio State-Illinois football game each year. Either Sachem of Illinois or Bucket and Dipper of Ohio State, junior men's honoraries, is given custody of Illibuck between games.

Then, in the winter and spring . . .

FOUNDER'S DAY

On March 2, 1868, the University of Illinois was founded. The student committee plans a program every March 2 to commemorate the founding of the University. Representatives from different campus activities meet together and place a wreath on the grave of the first president of the University, President Gregory, who is buried between Altgeld Hall and the Administration Building.

BAND CONCERTS

Ever since 1909, spring twilight concerts have been favorite hours of relaxation on Wednesday evenings. The concerts, presented in rotation by different University bands, are held on the steps of the Auditorium. The concerts start at the end of April and continue throughout the summer session.

HONORS DAY

Honors Day is annually observed by a convocation at which the University of Illinois gives official public recognition to those students who excel in scholarship. It is held on the Friday of Mother's Day week end. There are class honors, college honors, and University honors. The Bronze Tablet, bearing the names of seniors who have been outstanding in scholarship their junior and senior years, is then announced. Alpha Lambda Delta, the freshman women's scholastic honor society, attends in a body.

And all year 'round . . .

ALTGELD HALL CHIMES

The chimes in the Mathematics Building, which gives the time every quarter hour, can be heard over the entire campus. Concerts are played on Founder's Day, just before Christmas, and occasionally through the week and at noon on Sundays.

"A TRUE ILLINI NEVER CUTS"

This slogan carries a double connotation. It has long served to remind Illini to refrain from cutting across the lawns and in any way marring the beauty of the campus. It also serves to remind the students that "cutting" classes is not advisable.

LINCOLN TABLET

One of the most respected memorials of the University campus is a bronze tablet of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address located on the wall of the lobby in Lincoln Hall.

"ILLINOIS LOYALTY"

SOME ILLINI FIRSTS

1897 — First state supported school of music in U.S.

May the spirit of old Illinois
Keep us marching and singing
With true Illini spirit
For our dear old Illinois.

Oskee-wow-wow, Illinois,
Our eyes are all on you,

Ev'ry man stand up and yell
Back the team to gain a victory,
Oskee-wow-wow, Illinois.

DEAR MISS ILLINI,

We hope this handbook for freshman women has helped to answer some of the many questions you have had about your new home, the University of Illinois. We hope, too, that you will keep this book for reference not only during the first few weeks of school but throughout your college years.

We're sure you're getting anxious to come to our University. You'll find that the University of Illinois is more than just the classrooms, the books, lectures, quizzes, and mid-terms. It's the familiar strains of the twilight band concerts on the quadrangle . . . the laughter of men and co-eds strolling down the Broadwalk. But best of all, it's that tingling feeling of excitement whenever or wherever you hear "Hail to the Orange" because you know that you are a part of this wonderful University.

Be prepared for one of the greatest adventures of your life. Good luck!

Your Freshman Advisers,

Peggy
